An abstract geometric design featuring a large, solid black, irregular shape that dominates the upper half of the page. This shape has several sharp points and is surrounded by a complex network of thin, black, radiating lines that create a sense of depth and movement. The lines appear to be part of a larger, unseen structure, possibly a dome or a series of overlapping planes. The overall composition is dynamic and modern, with a strong emphasis on geometric forms and negative space.

Troy State Red Wave scored early in the first, third, and fourth periods to gain a 21-6 victory over the Livingston Tigers in the TSTC opener, September 22 in Memorial Stadium.

Coach Bill Clipson's crew went on to a 3-5 season including a 14-13 homecoming victory over Austin-Peay. Fullback Jack Hix and halfback Tom Boyd scored from the 11 and 10, respectively, to lead the Wave over the Governors for Troy's first homecoming victory in two years.

Two called-back touchdowns proved too much for the Wave as Delta State trounced them 19-0 in Troy, October 6. Clipson's charges also lost to the University of Tampa 33-19 in Tampa, September 29.

The South Georgia Tigers visited a muddy Memorial Stadium, October 20, and were handed a 13-2 defeat by the locals. Captain Carl Madison set up one touchdown with a 78-yard kick return and completed it with a beautiful pitchout to Manning. Brunson tallied from the 42 stripe for the other.

Like Jacksonville State, Florence State celebrated homecoming with a football victory over Troy. Jacksonville 27-14. Florence 27-6.

The Red Wave closed out the season in Franklin, Tennessee, November 10, with a 21-20 loss to Carson-Newman.

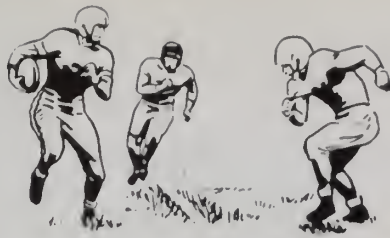

Troy's inspired 14-13 homecoming victory was, perhaps, the best game of the year for the much-improved Wave.

JOHN ARCHER, Coach

John Archer, graduate of Arkansas State Teachers College, took over the reins of the 1956-57 basketball team with his work already cut-out for him. Eleven lettermen answered Archer's call when practice began with the hope of having one of the best seasons in the history of Troy State.

The Red Wave jumped off to a terrific start by winning their first six games. Chipola, Howard, and Livingston provided the most opposition during this victory skein.

During the Christmas holidays the Wave felt the pain of defeat for the first time when Southeastern Louisiana romped to a 82-65 victory in the first round of the 3rd Annual Kiwanis Club Tournament in Hammond, Louisiana. Troy came back the next night to capture the consolation prize with a thrilling 71-67 victory over a strong Sul Ross State team from Texas.

Returning from a two-week vacation with a 7-2 record, Troy promptly racked up a victory over Southern Union. Carey College handed the Wave third setback 85-78, but again the home team bounced back with two victories over Birmingham Southern 86-55 and Florida Southern 86-65 to compile an 11-2 record before going on what turned out to be a disastrous week-end in Mississippi. Mississippi College and Carey both turned the Wave back by 6 and 9 points respectively. Troy then knocked off Livingston again and Athens before Birmingham Southern gained revenge with an 84-73 romp over the Wave. Troy ended the month of January by coming from behind to hand a loss to Jacksonville State 87-82 and show a 12-5 record for the first two months of the season.

With nine games remaining in February, Archer and his crew can certainly have one of the most successful seasons ever had at Troy if they play the brand of ball they are capable of playing.

Billy Brantley, Pete Holman, Paul Enzor, and Don Williams will probably carry the main load of the Red Wave golf team this spring. All four of these linksters are lettermen and should provide their opponents some very stiff competition.

TEAM

With only three returning lettermen and eighteen matches scheduled, the Troy State netters are in for a rough time this season.

Joseph "Frog" Brabham, Jac Roth, and Jimmy Scott are the returners from last year's team which won 9 and lost 4.

Unless these boys get some needed help, Coach John Archer may have some trouble in surpassing last season's record.

PAUL E. NIX
Coach

That thump, thump, thump, that you hear on warm days is the sound a baseball makes when it disappears into a glove. Probably behind these gloves you will find eight veterans of Coach Paul Nix's last year's nine. These gentlemen are preparing themselves for the coming season and will be endeavoring to reestablish their claim to their respective positions.

Coach Nix is now making preparation for the coming season. He hopes to come up with several new players plus improved play by the returning lettermen. It is thought that some returnees will have a hard time recapturing their position after the disappointing 9-9 record during 1956.

Bobby Williford and Ralph "Dusty" Rhodes will be returning for mound duty. These lettermen are being counted on for considerable action this spring.

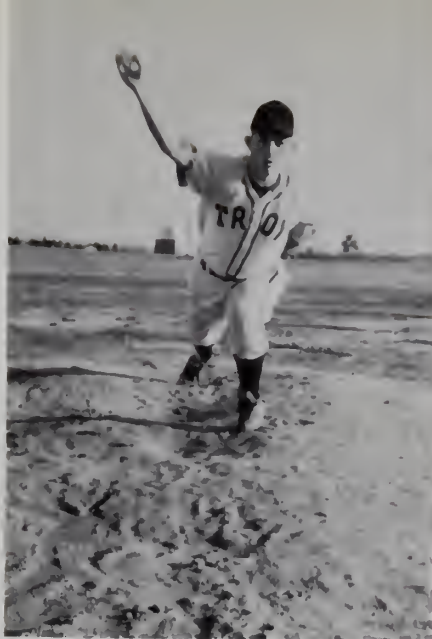

Conrad Henderson, two-year letterman, will don the "tools of ignorance" in an effort to bolster the catching department. Henderson, always a team leader, might prove to be the man for the job.

Three Bill's—Phelps, Brooks, and Young—along with Don Brown, should add punch to the attack with their big bats. Brown and Young are outfielders while Brooks and Phelps are slated for infield duty.

Troy State opens its season with a double-header against Florida State's freshmen on March 26th. On April 1st, immediately after the spring holidays, they will clash with the ever strong Howard club. From the opening game until the end of the season, the Troy lads face a tough schedule.

With an excellent schedule and many new faces the Troy State baseball team is looking forward to an outstanding season.
